

Warrick Dunn Charities' Homes for the Holidays (HFTH) program provides hope and healing to single-parent families across the nation. In 20 years, HFTH has grown from a program that assists families with their transition into homeownership, to a program that also provides support services to help them thrive financially, educationally and socially.

Warrick Dunn Charities' Hearts for Community Service Scholarship Award is a financial need-based award, which supports students who are active volunteers to their community and are attending a post-secondary institution. Scholarship awards in the amount of $1,000 will be offered in each of Warrick Dunn Charities' flagship states: Florida, Georgia and Louisiana.

Eligibility:

- Must provide volunteer service to their local community
- Must be attending post-secondary education
- Must be a resident or attending school in Florida, Georgia or Louisiana
- A minimum GPA of 2.0 on a 4.0 grading scale

Required Documents:

- Hearts for Community Service Scholarship Application
- Two (2) letters of recommendations showing proof of volunteer community service
 - Must include email and direct phone of reference
- Proof of enrollment in a post-secondary institution
- Proof of residency in Florida, Georgia or Louisiana
- A copy of most recent transcript
- A 500-word essay answering all of the following:
 - Describe how you are of service and how it has made a positive impact to your community.
 - How has being of service to your community had an impact on your life?
 - How will this scholarship assist in furthering your education?
 - What does the opportunity to receive a post-secondary education mean to you?

Deadline:

The Hearts for Community Service Scholarship application and required documents should be submitted no later than July 31, 2017 by 5 p.m. EST. All documents should be submitted together, via mail postmarked no later than July 31, 2017. Any submissions received after the deadline and/or incomplete will not be considered.
